

Personality of the Week

By TOM DOOLEY

A college radio station is a valuable means of providing entertainment for the students and bringing them news of their colleges. In Potsdam, WNTC, the campus station is operated by Clarkson and SUTCP working in conjunction for its success. This week's personality is Selig Brooks, the station manager of WNTC. This year, under his guidance, the station has added many fine programs and has become very popular with the students of both colleges.

A resident of Newburgh, New York, Selig graduated from Newburgh Free Academy in 1950. He entered Clarkson in the fall of the same year. While a freshman at Malone, he became vice-president and program director of WCCT, the freshmen station. He was a member of the N.C.O. Club and served on the staff of the Fresh Integrator.

He came to Potsdam in 1951 and worked as the Day Manager of WNTC. As a sophomore, he joined the Clarkson Society of Accountants and worked on the staff of the Clarkson Journal, a former college publication.

During his junior year, he continued his work at the station. He became a member of the executive board and served as the Director of Announcers. He joined the Dramateachers and had the supporting role in their production, "Seven Keys to Baldpate". He was elected Secretary of the Clarkson Society of Accountants and was given the honor of being initiated into Pi Delta Epsilon. He became a member of the Omicron Pi Omicron Fraternity and has since served on committees to insure the success of its activities.

Selig, now a senior, is serving as treasurer of Pi Delta Epsilon. He is the Business Manager of the Student Directory and as mentioned before, is the Station Manager of WNTC. As a Clarkson student, he has shown loyalty and good taste in his activities and promises of future success.
